Since their election, in September of 1960, the members of "The Spindle" Staff have been working diligently to put together a yearbook which will give pleasure to the senior class.

A great amount of time and effort has gone into this publication, and we sincerely hope that the whole class will enjoy it immensely.

To Miss Anna Ryan, our advisor, we extend our heartfelt thanks for all the work she has done in our behalf. Few students realize the hours Miss Ryan has spent on this product. Without her help this publication of "The Spindle" would never have been possible.

Many thanks go also to the business managers, home room representatives, secretaries, arrangers, artists and advertisers who helped to make this issue a reality.

RAYMOND A. SULLIVAN
Headmaster

To the Graduates of 1961

Opportunities opening to high school graduates in the rapidly expanding industries of the missile age require competent guidance, responsible control, extensive skills, and alert cooperation. We here in Lowell High School have devoted our serious efforts to prepare and equip the members of '61 to be eager receptors of the additional training and experience which the years will offer them. Stimulated by the challenge of science, as well as that of the art of living happily, you all in the future will, we feel, capably fulfill the wide variety of skills demanded in an ever-enlarging cosmos. We wish you every joy in the unlimited advance of your personal development.

Class Ode

Original words and music by Madelyn J. Bryant

We launched our bold, trustworthy ships
To sail Life's rushing tide,
Fearless of the storms before us,
Knowing God would be our Guide.

Now we sail from sheltered harbors,
Searching for some unknown land.
Thru the dimly lighted future,
Having faith, we take God's hand.

O, may our journey be serene,
Though dark clouds bring us fear.
When they fade in waves behind us,
New horizons shall appear.

Steer us right, O Master Pilot;
May Thy Beacon light our way.
Help us conquer all things evil
As we serve Thee day by day.

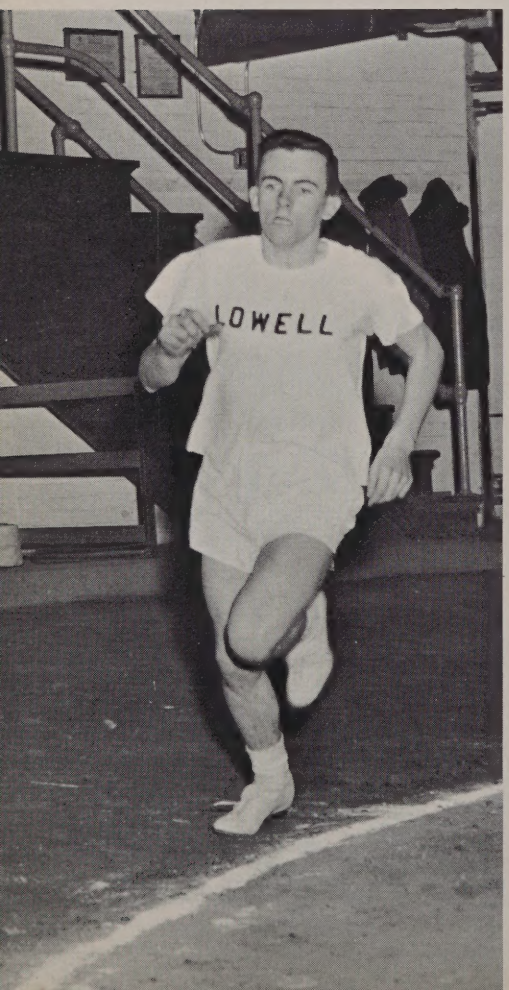
In Competition



The Track Team

Front: Raymond Dolan, Michael Rynne, William Downing, Paul Lenardson, Captain William McArthur, Robert Harrington, John Ostiguy, Frank Dolan, David Berry. Middle: Coach Mike Haggerty, Ronald McArthur, David Banks, Steve Cohen, William Chisholm, Robert McCarron, Thomas Linscott, Michael Ashwood, Kenneth McKenzie, Alby Mangan, John Maher. Rear: Robert Kearns, Thomas Dunlavey, Leonard Caldeira, Ronald Krawczyk, Donald Rousseau, Paul Teague, George Young, Thomas King, Tony Plomaritis.

Coach George "Mike" Haggerty was in his 43rd year of coaching the Red and Gray track teams during the 1960-61 season. The Red Raiders got off to a slow start, but finished the season in a blaze of glory. They won their last five meets in a row including a victory over traditional arch rival, Lawrence High to finish high up in the first division of the North Shore League.

The Golf Team

Front: Richard Choate, Robert Harrington, Tom McGuirk, Leo Hamel. Rear: Leo Flynn, Steve Abbott, Andrew Andricopoulos.

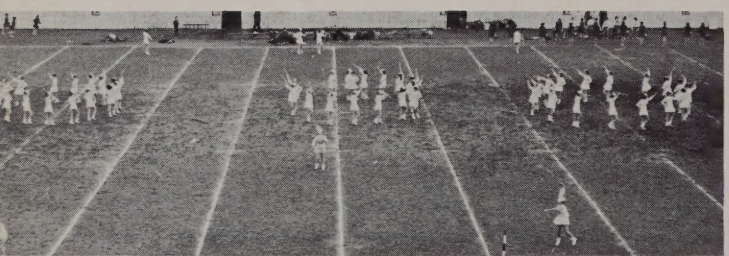
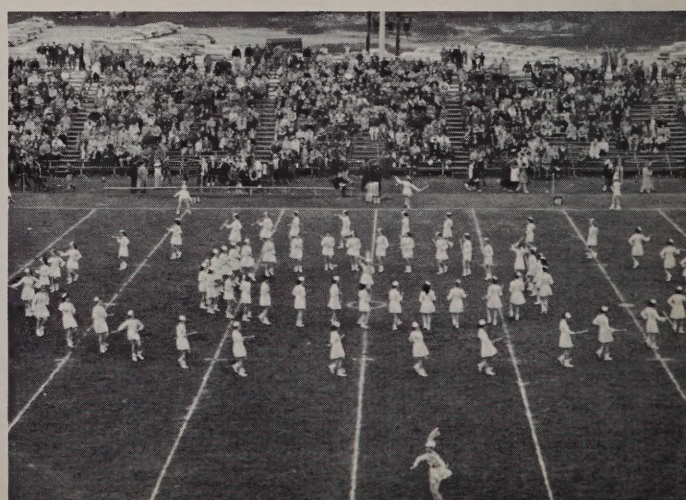
The Leaders

In Formations





For over twenty-five years now, the baton twirlers, clad in their white and gold uniforms, have been the attraction between the halves of the football games. They perform their drills with such precision that they have been acclaimed as "the best all girl drill team in New England."

The baton twirlers are kept busy the whole year round. When football season is over they compete in the various balls throughout the state. In these competitions, the Lowell High Baton Twirlers often win most of the awards in their respective classes. During the past year they have won over 300 trophies and medals, and two state championships.

At the various competitions, twirlers are often complimented on their beautiful costumes, expert twirling skill, and good behavior.

The unit has progressed considerably since that day in 1935, when it was first founded by Wilfrid Boulger with only 29 members. Now, most of the eighty girls belong to The National Baton Twirling Association which recognizes the Lowell twirlers as the finest in this part of the country.

Once again the L. H. S. Band and dance band, under the direction of William Notini, enjoyed a most successful season. The band, seventy-five strong, performed at the football games, assemblies, Field Day and Memorial Day parades.

The apex of activities was a concert in April. The band also attended the Northeast Music Festival in May.

The dance band provided the music for the school show and performed well in the Jazz Show.

One of the most active clubs at Lowell High School is the Business Club under the direction of Mr. Edward Sullivan, Head of the Business Education Department. Although its main emphasis is on school-community relations, the club has not neglected educational and social programs.

Educational and social programs, planned with needs of business pupils in mind provide guest speakers from the local business concerns and field trips to local offices. Social programs, a part of the club's activities, included a delightful Christmas Party. Our own school welfare is not forgotten, for on Honor Day, the club presents a donation.

Students enrolled in business subjects would benefit by joining this club.

Since its founding in 1957, the Student Council has gradually grown to the size and status it presently maintains. Its members include representation from the four classes, the object being to propagate democratic principles of government throughout the school body. An organization so formed, with the intention of progression in intramural politics, is a decided asset to any high school campus.

Student Exchange

The student exchange program is designed to enrich knowledge of town and city governments, to gain greater appreciation of those who render competent and faithful service, and to encourage pupils' pride in their own community.

Seated: Robert Bobusia, Thomas Bowser. Standing: Frances Sokorelis, Sharon Silva, and Mary O'Dowd.

National Honor Society

The Flaming Torch Lighting the Road of Life is the emblem of the National Honor Society. To become a member of this society is one of the most honored scholastic attainments a student can achieve.

The four basic requirements for membership are character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

All Juniors with a rank of 90% and in the top 5% of their class, and Seniors in the highest 15% of their class are eligible to be members of this society, which was founded in 1927 by Miss Helen Choate and is carried on today under the able direction of Mr. John Leary.

Student members of this most honored society bring distinction to themselves, honor to their school, and esteem to their community.

The Greenhalge Debating Society

Founded in 1856 in honor of Frederick T. Greenhalge, Governor of Massachusetts, The Greenhalge Debating Society promotes and encourages interest in debating and extemporaneous speaking.

Under the direction of Mr. James Finn, the club this year won half of its debates in the Greater Lowell Suburban Debating League.

Front: Marguerite I. Devanney, Nancy L. Koch, Carol A. Kapala, Stanley J. Stasiowski, Elaine M. Alberts, William H. Tully, Jane H. Bujnowski. Middle: Judith M. Delisle, Donald K. McPhee, Sandra J. Cooperative Retailing

The Co-operative Retailing Department, established at Lowell High School in 1942, is available to seniors who are sixteen years of age or older.

The Co-operative plan of combining in-school training for High school seniors with related practical experience on supervised jobs has been very successful. Students are in school in the morning, and during the afternoon are on supervised job placements where they are paid for the hours worked. Lowell merchants cooperate with the school in providing the training and supervision on the jobs.

Two personnel directors from our local stores interview prospective students at the end of their junior year. Previous high school records, plus the personnel director's rating determine which students are acceptable for employment.

The department is under the supervision of Miss Claire A. Quigley, teacher co-ordinator.

Officers of the club are: Front: Margaret Reynolds, Secretary; Patricia Burns, President; Patricia Reynolds, Vice-President. Rear: Anne Weisburg, Program Chairman; Sherry Kaplan, Treasurer; Aileen Thrope, Program Chairman.

European Culture Club

Possessing an outstanding membership record, the European Culture Club has enjoyed a most successful year. On the first Monday of each month a meeting is held in which the members increase their knowledge of European countries through films and interesting talks given by friends of the high school who have visited Europe.

The high point of this year's social activities was the Christmas party held at the home of Miss Bertha Desmarais. The club is fortunate to have Miss Desmarais as faculty advisor.

Spanish Club

Once a month the Spanish Club met in Room 205 under the direction of Miss Mary V. O'Neil. During the year the "aficionados" of the language enjoyed movies, speakers, music and "fiestas" which added to their knowledge of the progress and culture of Spain.

Communication at Lowell High would come to a stop if it weren't for these girls. They are a neat, efficient, and courteous group of girls who, selected upon their teacher's recommendation, hold their jobs because of excellence in the Business Education Department.

Every school day they busily take and deliver messages, type dismissal slips and run the switchboard. These industrious girls are an integral part of the function of the main office at Lowell High.

Beverley and Judith Sweet watch Sandra Bean at the office switchboard.

Student Library Staff

Front: Raymar Myers, Joanne Faias, Dorothy Cameron. Rear: Faye Lavrakos, Cheryl Burke, Mary Ellen Hogan, Virginia Szurley, Sandra Beaudette.

Students in the library staff serve one period a day in the library. The staff members learn how to check books in and out or to renew them.

They deliver attendance slips to study halls and learn the use of the card catalogue and the reference station. The students also have a chance to use many good books available for references and pleasure.

Show Committee

The Show Committee, under the capable direction of Miss Florence Savas, assisted by Miss Mary Casey, made our annual school show a great success. The music, script, and tickets for "Caught in the Draft" were planned and discussed by the committee for several weeks prior to its presentation. Members of the committee participated actively in the show in a song and dance of the roaring twenties entitled "Ballin' the Jack."

The Math Clubs

Providing unusual and entertaining mathematical information is the prime objective of the L. H. S. Math Club. The membership of this organization consists of all interested seniors who have completed three years of mathematics. Both useful and humorous mathematical knowledge is explained at the meetings.

In conjunction with the Math Club is Mu Alpha Theta, the National Mathematics Club. This honorary club is restricted to students maintaining a "B" average.

Regimental Officers

The Cadet Officers of the Lowell High School Boys Regiment have this year continued the high standards and traditions of the organization founded seventy-nine years ago. The Cadet Officers have developed the enthusiasm and leadership first evidenced in their pre-officer duties and carried on throughout their regular officer year.

As in past years, much of the success of the Cadet Corps is due to the military instruction given by Major James F. Murray and Major John J. Beaulieu. The Regiment has become tops in its field due to the guidance of these two men.

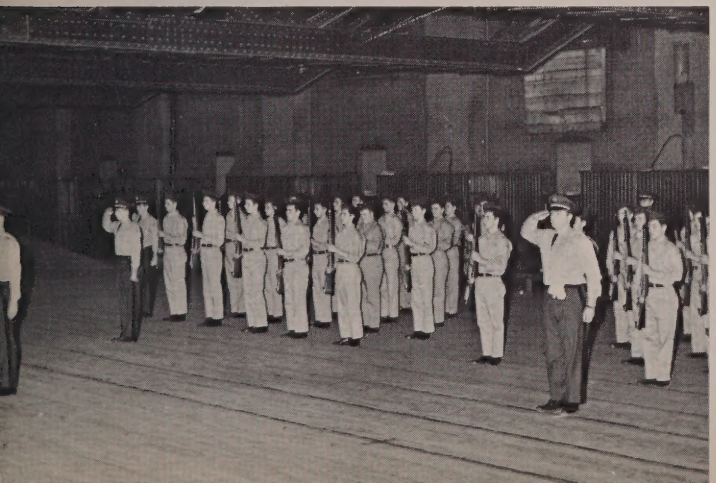
For the second consecutive year the rank of Brigadier General has been the highest grade which a Cadet Officer can attain. The General is the student leader of the Junior and Sophomore Battlegroups. He is followed in rank by three colonels, four lieutenant-colonels, eight majors, eighteen captains, twenty-three first-lieutenants and nineteen second-lieutenants.

Each officer of the Class of 1961 will long remember the rewarding experiences of his life as a Cadet Officer. Included among such happy events are: his appointment as a Cadet Officer, the Generalcy Drill, the Cadet Officers' Ball, the Field Day Exercises and Memorial Day Parade.



Personnel

Front: Alice Cloutier, Mary Piekos, Janet Bergeron, Joan Saad, Barbara Bogacz, Mary Gail Dolan. Middle: Barbara MacInnis, Joan Kinnal, Roberta Siegel, J. Twenty senior girls, chosen at the close of their junior year for achievement in their Stenography and Typewriting classes, are given rich experiences as members of an organization referred to as "Personnel."

Under the guidance and instruction of Miss Mary V. Lyons, these seniors perform an outstanding service to the entire school. Their special duties include such activities as typing and mimeography courses of study, programs for school activities, clerical and duplicating work for the Main Office or other divisions of the school organization.

SCHOLARSHIP REPORT

Parents

Parents are asked to examine this report carefully for the scholarship standing of the pupil; for the record of attendance which includes the number of times the pupil has been absent, tardy, or dismissed; for the deportment of the pupil; and for the number of demerits.

The parent's signature should indicate that the report has been thoroughly examined. The information conveyed by this report is necessarily brief. A complete understanding of the pupil's program and achievement can only be gained by personal consultation with the school authorities. The Head Master desires and urges that parents visit the school frequently.

Ranking

A—90 to 100 per cent
B—80 to 90 per cent
C—70 to 80 per cent
D—65 to 70 per cent
E—64 and below, failure

Each rank in scholarship on this report represents the marks of the present report period combined with marks of all previous report periods. Therefore, the letter on the report in June represents the work accomplished by the pupil from September through June.

Deportment

A—Excellent
B—Good
C—Fair, one demerit
D—Poor, two demerits
E—Very poor, three or more demerits

If a pupil receives D or E in deportment, the parent should consult the Head Master of the school at once.

★ BOY OF THE MONTH ★

The January "Boy of the Month" is popular Jack Bowden, who resides with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Bowden at 91 Campbell Drive. Since Jack entered Lowell High School from the Daley Junior School, he has pursued the College Preparatory Course, hopeful of entering either the U. S. Coast Guard Academy or Notre Dame. In school he is a member of the Cadet Officer's Regiment, "Review" Science, Math, and Jazz Clubs, the lunchroom staff, and the football team. Besides this busy schedule he finds time to be active in the Y.M.C.A. Among Jack's hobbies are collecting jazz records, swimming, horseback riding and shooting pool. Jack will receive a sports shirt with the compliments of Danny Mills.

★ GIRL OF THE MONTH ★

An enthusiastic skier is Anne Marie Weisberg, who will be heading up country at the first sign of snow. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Weisberg, she resides in Dunstable, a town which offers many good "practice" slopes. Westford Academy sent us this charming girl and here she has been pursuing the college course. Having spent a successful summer as a councilor-in-training, she decided to make grade teaching her profession and hopes to continue her studies at Lowell State College. Besides skiing Anne Marie enjoys swimming, badminton and dancing. In school, she is program chairman of the European Culture Club and a member of the Science Club. Outside of school she belongs to the Nashua Ski Club. Anne Marie will receive an orchid with the compliments of Kenney the Florist

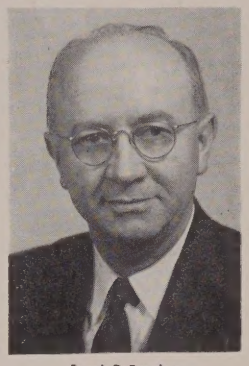
SPORTS

by CHARLES CAHILL

In the annual Lowell-Lawrence conflict, the Red Raiders led twice, were forced to settle for a 14-14 contest. Lowell completely dominated the first half, and Bill Kouloheras launched the first scoring drive as he returned a punt to the Lawrence 30. Tommy O'Hare took it over from the one, but Vizinho's pass for the extra points was no good. Lawrence quickly retaliated, but Bill Kouloheras fell on a fumble inside the 10. Lowell's defense again stopped Lawrence within the 10, but the Lancers bounced back and tied the score. On the next kickoff raced to the Lawrence 27, but the threat ended as Vizinho was pushed back on two successive plays. A 15-yd. penalty forced the Lancers to punt and minutes later Frediani ran 49 yds. for a TD and plunged over left tackle for the conversion. Minutes later Lawrence drove 70 yds. and tied up the game. This TD was scored on a freak play. The Lancer quarterback fumbled, but scooped the ball to a halfback who threw a pass for the tally. Frediani almost scored in the final seconds but was brought down at midfield. Voted outstanding player was Camille Frediani with Bill Kouloheras runner up. Jack Taylor was named outstanding lineman.

At a post-season meeting of the team, Junior fullback Bill Kouloheras was elected as Captain of the 1961 Football Squad.

In Memoriam



Francis D. Reardon

Last Saturday the entire community, the teaching profession, and most of all Lowell High, lost an outstanding teacher, Mr. Francis D. Reardon. Dedicated to his pupils, loyal and sincere in his devotion to the training of young people, he was not only an example in his chosen subject, English, but also, a model of fine living. Pupils presently in school and those who have attended his classes over the past thirty years all join in extending sympathy in his loss, to his wife Doris, his two daughters Eleanor and Maureen, and his son James.

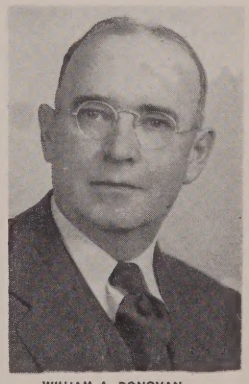
E. C. Club to Celebrate

Aileen Thrope and Anne Marie Weisberg, the program chairmen, planned an especially interesting program for the next meeting of the European Culture Club which was held on Monday, December 5. At this meeting an interesting and informative talk on Russia was given by Miss Lanseigne. Miss Lanseigne has traveled extensively in Russia and she showed the members slides of the U.S.S.R.

In Memoriam



WILLIAM A. DONOVAN

In the short space of five weeks, death has again struck Lowell High. The community, the teaching profession, and most especially our own Lowell High School, have lost a superior and dedicated teacher of forty years experience, Mr. William A. Donovan. A teacher of accounting, advisor and floormaster to the Junior class, Mr. William Donovan was a model of exemplary living both to the students who have studied under his guidance, and also to his fellow teachers. Past students of Lowell High and the present student body wish to extend sincere sympathy to his wife Marguerite, and his daughter Elizabeth in their loss.

The Science Club

In today's world, with a great emphasis being placed on science, the Lowell High School Science Club, like many others throughout the country, is doing its part by encouraging students to take a more active interest in all sciences. Members of the organization are kept abreast of important events through films and lectures. The club is under the guidance of Dr. Walter Grondalski. Its officers are Paul Martel, President; David Boggs, Program Chairman; John Shields, Treasurer; and Donna Murray, Secretary.

Home Room Representatives

Each year, representatives from each Senior home room, appointed to assist in many class activities, are elected by their respective home rooms. Throughout the year their great assistance is given in collecting for various funds, selling tickets for the school shows and also for the collection of class dues.

Driver Education and Training

The Driver Education program at Lowell High is truly a credit to our school. Under the able leadership of Miss Rose O'Neil, Mr. L. Wyman Trull, Mr. Raymond Riddick, Mr. Joseph Kulis and Mr. Thomas Grady, the two-part course is given to stimulate an interest in safe driving among our students. The responsibilities of driving are many and the students learn to what rules and laws of safe driving they should conform.
